COMPANY TRYING TO HERE A.PIER.

At the meeting of the Bock Commissioners yesterday a petition was received from G. B. Massey, J. L. Macaulay and J. J. Murphy. askung the Commissioners to grant them a license for a term of years to moor in the river, facing the Battery wall, between South Ferry and Castle Garden, a "Grand Floating Palace" to be used as a place of general resort and healthful recreation, bathing, ele., and as a landing for excursion steamers. It was promised that the structure should combine the elements of "ornarmentation, elegance and usefulness," and should be fitted up with three fountains, a music stand, electric lights and other attractions. It was stated that the attructure would rest upon two iron hulls containing watertight compartments. Mr. Massey was present with one of his associates, between whom and the Commissioners a long discussion followed. Commissioner Laimbeer began with the remark: "You propose to make this a rendezvous for fun and frolic?"

Mr. Massey—That is one of the objects, of course, Mr. Laimbeer—I move that we give a simple denial on the part of the Board, as it is out of the question to grant such a privilege. We have no right to vote for any such encumbrance to that part of the harbor.

Commissioner Dimock—I don't think that I should vote for it.

Commissioner Vanderpoel—I certainly shall not.

Mr. Massey—I would like to have a hearing, as I COMPANY TRYING TO HIRE A.PIER.

Vote for it.

Commissioner Vanderpoel—I certainly shall not.
Mr. Massey—I would like to have a hearing, as I think I can show you its advantages which would overcome all objections.
Mr. Laimbeer—Your petition asks us to take prompt action, hence my resolution. But if you desire to be heard, I am disposed to give you the time.

desire to be heard, I am disposed to give you the time.

Mr. Dimock—This is like a woodchuck—a little too fat. If we were disposed to get a revenue from that partion of the water-front, we could get a large one. It has not been thought proper to devote that part of the water-front to the purpose of revenue, and your plan would simply establish a depot for collisions between steamboats at that point.

Mr. Massey—My idea is to show you that this palace will not be an obstruction to navigation, and I will present facts which will change your opinions.

Mr. Dimock—He certainly has length, breadth and thickness which cannot be got rid of. We are willing to sit and listen to you, but I think it will be a regular college prize debate and we will be the umpires.

ing to sit and listen to you, our transparence of any regular college prize debate and we will be the umpires.

Mr. Laimbeer—If I can see that this will be of any possible benefit to the people as a place of amusement by which we could properly consider it above the commercial requirements I am really to listen to any arguments.

The conference was appointed for Monday next.
An application of the Iron Steamboat Company for the lease of Pier No. 1 North River, for a period of ten years at $25,000, with the privilege of renewal for ten years at an advance of $5,000 a year, was referred to the Committee of the Whole. The company also requested that if the application was not granted the lease be sold at auction at an upset price of $25,000 a year.

A complaint against a platform and other encumbrances on the bulkhead, near Barrow-st., provoked considerable discussion. Mr. Laimbeer offered a resolution that notices be sent to the wharlingers that all encumbrances upon the new water-front along West-st, must be removed forth with, and that if the owners fail to comply they will receive the full penalties of the law. The resolution was adopted.

At 8:30 p. m. Tuesday the prisoner half carried the boy out on the track. He was hardly able to stand. When the boy was in front of the scorres' stand he fell to the ground in a faint. The Captain arrested the father and sent for Police Surgeon Clemmens, who pronounced the lad's condition to be dangerous. He had him sent home. Justice Kilbreth asked Dr. Clemmens if he considered that walking ninety-eight miles was injurious to the boy's health. The physician said that in his opinion it was. The Justice then held the accused man in $500 bail, and paroled him nutil this afternoon, when he will produce a bonds-

RECOVERED FROM CENTRAL PARK LAKE.

Waiter Glass, of No. 420 West Fifty-eighth-st., called at the Park Police Station Tuesday night, and said that his son Waiter, age eight, was missing. A younger son, he said, was one of the four boys who broke through the ice in Central Park in the afternoon, who were roscued. The cap of his missing son had been found lying upon the ice, and there was no clew as to where he was. The Park was thoroughly searched, and a description of the boy was sent to all of the police stations in the city. As no tidings of the missing lad were received, Captain Beatty yesterday morning ordered a search to be made in the lake. The body was soon found near the spot where the other boys had broken in. SUCCESS OF THE PIANOMAKERS' STRIKE.

The Weber pianomakers, whose strike has lasted for over five weeks, have finally gained the object which they sought and have decided to return to work. The committee that ordered the strike called a meeting yesterday at the Assembly strike called a meeting yesterday at the Assembly Rooms, Third-ave, and Sixteenth-st., to consider recent communications from Mr. Weber. Eight days ago Mr. Weber off-red to comply with the strikers ago Mr. Weber off-red to comply with the strikers wish that he restore the 10 per cent reduction in wages, but refused to discharge men in his employ who had not joined the strike. Thesday Mr. Weber informed the strikers' committee that these men had voluntarily resigned from his employment, and therefore he requested that the men should immediately return to work. Before agreeing to this a committee was sent to address the firm on preliminary arrangements. At the meeting yesterday Mr. Hagan, who has presided at the meeting since the beginning of the strike, spoke of the success of the movement, which he attributed largely to the moral and financial aid given to the strikers by the Pianomaker's Union. He doubted if the strike could have been continued to a successful ending had it not been for the subscriptions of the Union, which in the five weeks had amounted to $7,000. James Lynch, president of the United Order of American Carpenters and Joiner's No. 3, congratulated the strikers on their success, saying that it was a victory for labor that would greatly encourage workinguner's organizations in all trades. The committee that had conferred with Mr. Weber then reported that all arrangements had been made satisfactorily, and it was decided unanimously that the strikers should return to work to-day without ceremony. Upon third-class matter, or upon the wrapper inclosing the same, the sender may write his own name and address with the word "from" above and preceding the same, and in either case may make simple marks, intended to designate a word or passage of the text, to which it is the cover or blank leaves of any book, or of any printed matter of the third class, a manuscript dedication or inseription, but it must be confined to a simple address or consignment as a mark of respect, and it must not partake of the nature of personal correspondence. Upon fourth-class matter the sender may write his own name and address, preceded by the word "from," and also the number and names of the articles inclosed. He may also mark the article for identification.

THE TELEGRAPH LITIGATION.

MR. WILLIAMS'S SUIT. THE QUESTION OF THE EXAMINATION OF THE DE

PENDANTS BEFORE THIAL POSIPONED. In the suit of William S. Williams against Western Union Telegraph Company and its directors and the Union Trust Company, to restrain by injunction from $41,000,000 to $50,000,000, Chief-Judge Sedgwick granted an order for the examination before trial of the Western Union Company by its president, Dr. Norvin Green, and of the Ualon Trust Company by its president, Edward King, and of the defendants, Edwin D. Morgan, Norvin Green, William H. Vanderbilt, John Van Horne Cornelius Vanderbilt, Moses Taylor, Wilson G. Hunt, Darius O. Mills, Anson Stager, Jay Gould, Russell Sage and Thomas T. Eckert. The order was made returnable yesterday morning at half past 10 o'clock, at which hour Dr. Green, Jay Genid, Russell Sage and others appeared before Judge S. dgwick in the Superior Court, Ex-Judge John K. Porter, on behalf of the defendants opposed the examination and asked that the order granting it be vacated. The defendants, be said, were charged ing it be variated. The defendants, be sald, were charged with a conspiracy to defined the stockholders of the company of which they are directors, which, if established, would expose them to an indetment in criminal proceedings; and therefore they could not be subjected to an examination under oath in respect to their allegationnection with it, as their answers might be used in evidence against them in a subsequent criminal action. This would be to deprive the defendants of the well-established legal privilega that no one could be compatible to criminals thuself.

This would be to deprive the defeatables of the wanrelied to criminate blusself.

Mr. Sewell maintained the right of Mr. Williams to an examination of the defendants on the ground that it was necessary to enable him to draw an anended complaint in his action. He disclaimed any intention of proceeding criminally against the directors of the Westcru Union Company, and admitted that Mr. Williams could not fusist upon their examination if they should acclare that they could not answer any questions his regard to the alleged conspiracy without criminating themselves, and consequently calmed their privilege.
Mr. Sewell denied, however, that the conspiracy would subject the defendants to an indictment, or that it was in any way different from that always set up in similar bills in equity. He said that the defendants were charged in the complaint with conspiring with certain other persons whose names were unknown to Mr. Williams, and that without the examination asked for it would be impossible to amend the complaint by bringing in these unknown persons, who were necessary defendants. ants.

Judge Sedgwick a ijourned the examination to conside whether or not it was a proper case for such relief.
